

Association for Washington Archaeology
Anti-Racism, Equity, Diversity, and Social Justice

RESOURCES TO LEARN FROM

The following annotated bibliography was compiled by various members of the AWA Diversity Committee and the list is modeled after other resources lists that are available online from local governments and neighboring institutions. The entries are organized by group name or author's last name. The AWA Diversity Committee does not necessarily endorse, recommend, or assume responsibility for the work of any author or publisher, listed here or otherwise. Some of these entries may contain offensive words and/or explicit examples of racism, discrimination and/or microaggressions. Please practice self-care and explore these resources at your own risk.

Society for American Archaeology

<https://docs.google.com/spreadsheets/d/1qZDvjMtFuvAGwfbol7Kko9U98lpi4eLG4vSMq7MW2l0/edit#gid=442361000>

Archaeology is a field dominated by whiteness, in academic and professional practice. It is clear that this has contributed to tangible harms and continued marginalization of BIPOC communities. As a member-driven society of archaeologists, SAA understands that the Association needs to be a part of the solution, and that begins by educating members and others. This spreadsheet serves as an open-access, community-wide resource for archaeologists who are interested in pursuing anti-racism in their daily practice.

Scaffolded Anti-Racist Resources I Anna Stamborski, Nikki Zimmermann, and Bailie Gregory

https://docs.google.com/document/d/1PrAq4iBNb4nVlcTsLcNIW8zjaQXBLkWayL8EaPlh0bc/preview?pru=AAABcprJuY*pugJDk47kiCRIsbBSU3YMW

This is a working document for scaffolding anti-racism resources. The goal is to facilitate growth for white folks to become allies, and eventually accomplices for anti-racist work. These resources have been ordered in an attempt to make them more accessible and they are updated.

Racial Microaggressions I KIYUN KIM

<https://nortonism.tumblr.com/> Content Warning - This site explicitly conveys Microaggressions.

The Racial Microaggressions photo series was completed in December 2013 as part of a final in Visual Thinking taught by Casey Ruble. The prompt was to "create something honest." The photos were taken at Fordham University at Lincoln Center in New York, and all subjects in the series are then-students of Fordham University.

Teaching Tolerance

<https://www.tolerance.org/topics/race-ethnicity>

Teaching Tolerance provides a range of materials for educators: learning modules that make you think, presentations you can share and hands-on workshops with our expert trainers. These resources help teachers improve their practice and help K–12 leaders shape their schools into strong, equitable communities.

Outdoor Afro

<https://outdoorafro.com/stories/>

Outdoor Afro has become the nation's leading, cutting edge network that celebrates and inspires Black connections and leadership in nature.

White Supremacy Culture

<https://www.whitesupremacyculture.info/>

Characteristics of white supremacy are damaging because they are used as norms and standards without being proactively named or chosen by the group. Learn more by following links on this interactive website by Tema Okun.

Minority Report

<https://medium.com/level/newsletters/minority-report>

A weekly newsletter that dives into cultural news in need of a strong opinion.

*Return here in the future for a more resources.
We plan to update and add to these lists as often as possible.*